

Predicted Likelihood of Persistent Non-Sustained Employment by Selected Characteristics

Special Education status, Gender, American Indian and Black identity, PSEO participation, and ACT participation are all independently associated with higher instability risk.

