

Predicted Likelihood of Completing College Regionally by Selected Characteristics

Range school status, deeper CTE engagement, American Indian identity, income disadvantage, and stronger local economic conditions all point toward staying regional; AP/SAT participation and Black identity point toward completing elsewhere.

