

Proportion of academic preparation scores that graduated from a post-secondary institution in Minnesota outside the region.

The higher the academic preparation score the more likely they will complete college outside the region.

